

Before I was enrolled in the "Indiana Telephone Block", I was receiving over 30 phone calls a DAY. That figure has drastically been reduced to just 5-7 per day. I am disabled and find it very offensive to 1.Get to the phone 2.Have to tell everyone that I DO NOT own a home. Even though I havee an un-listed number, the calls keep coming. PLEASE leave "OUR" Indiana Law alone. Thank you